

Cool Women

HOT JOBS

the young women's leadership schools

presented by  JPMorganChase

*If You Can See It,
You Can Be It!
Please help us ignite a spark in our girls about careers and life goals!*

The Young Women's Leadership Foundation is looking for COOL WOMEN with HOT JOBS

from all career fields, occupations and professional levels to participate in one of our

2008 Career Day Series

We need volunteers to educate and inspire girls about the exciting workforce and all the diverse career opportunities available to them. Specifically, you will be asked to speak about:

- ◆ Your current job and its daily activities, responsibilities and challenges;
 - ◆ The education and skills needed to succeed in your chosen field;
 - ◆ Your career path and the interesting aspects about your profession.

Dates and Locations

Thursday, March 27 – Astoria, Queens

Friday, March 28 – Jamaica, Queens

Thursday, April 3 – Bronx

Wednesday, April 9 – East Harlem

Thursday, May 15 – Philadelphia

All activities will take place in the morning. Exact times and more detailed information will be provided when you sign-up to volunteer.*

Meaningful and Memorable...

"What was really inspiring was that all the volunteers went to school. That made me see that without school you are nothing because school is very important. One of the women said that even if your parents never went to school you don't have to be like them, and both my parents never finished school so I learned that I'm not going to follow in their footsteps."
~TYWLS, Jamaica student (2007)

To register for this event at one of our five locations please RSVP to Christine Biela (cbiela@ywlfoundation.org) by Friday, February 15 with the following information:

name, contact information, job title, company, and date/location choice.

Participants will be notified about their assigned location and event details on Wednesday, February 20.

★ This fun and rewarding event always fills up fast and space is limited!
