Revised as of September 12, 2007 (see September 17 and early registration/application in March; some changes in PIR Program dates)

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
New York City Early Literacy Learning (NYCELL) Parent-Child Learning Centers are located within New York City Housing Authority Community Centers. For more information about NYCELL sites please visit our website at www.schools.nyc.gov/earlychildhood Partners In Reading After-School Program is located in New York City Housing Authority Community Centers for Grade 1, 2 and 3 students. For PIR sites please visit our website at http://schools.nyc.gov/earlychildhood Prekindergarten Vision Screening: Vision screening is an essential component of Prekindergarten programs. The goal is early detection and better treatment outcomes for children who may have serious eye conditions, including Amblyopia ("lazy eye"). Age four is the ideal time for treatment. Trained screeners will visit all prekindergarten sites as part of this program. Parents will be notified.
