Make up examinations may be given any day after the final examination has been given, up to January 18, 2008.

All examinations must follow the format of a Regents Assessment.

ISS and ESL should follow the RCTs or NYSESLAT if the students' performance level warrants this type of assessment.

All finals for both Regents and non-Regents courses must be formatted on the Regents examination with Regents type questions.

All non Regents courses must use the format of one of the Regents examinations, Math, ELA, SS or Sci.

Please forward two copies of each of your final examinations to your AP for review and file no later than January 11, 2008.

Requests for copies must be made 48 hours prior to examination date.

Copies will be made with priority given to examinations as per the schedule for examinations listed above.

All Teachers are expected to follow dates and formats outlined above.
